JURUPA ROAD GRADE SEPARATION

City of Jurupa Valley

John Ashlock, PE
Division Manager – Construction
County of Riverside Transportation Department

November 5, 2026

JURUPA ROAD
GRADE SEPARATION

AGENDA

- Project Overview
- Project Update Since July 2026
- Relief From Maintenance
- Path To Completion

Recent aerial shot of Jurupa Road underpass and UPRR bridge.

JURUPA ROAD
GRADE SEPARATION

Project Overview

The Jurupa Road Grade Separation project will separate train traffic from vehicles, pedestrians and cyclists by constructing an underpass under Van Buren Blvd. and the UPPR tracks.

JURUPA ROAD
GRADE SEPARATION

Project Update

Stage 1 UPRR Bridge Work Completed since July 2026

- Concrete work completed on the bridge foundation, abutments and columns
- Stage 1 retaining wall concrete work completed
- 18 concrete pours to date with about 2,343 cubic yards or 240 mixer truck loads
- Relocated SCE transmission poles

Preparing for approach slab concrete

Jobsite after approach slab concrete placement.

JURUPA ROAD
GRADE SEPARATION

In Progress

- Installing 62 steel girders on UPRR Stage 1 bridge.

JURUPA ROAD
GRADE SEPARATION

In Progress

- Preparing for permanent track construction; expected to begin in January 2027.
- Preparing to start Stage 2 UPRR bridge construction and Stage 2 Van Buren Boulevard bridge construction in early 2027.

JURUPA ROAD
GRADE SEPARATION

In Progress: Relief from Maintenance

- Van Buren Boulevard and Rutile Street at grade intersection
  - ✓ Completed in July 2026, CPUC and UPRR accepted the improvements
- Jurupa Road and Pedley Road at grade intersection

Van Buren Blvd. and Rutile St.

Jurupa Rd. and Pedley Rd.

JURUPA ROAD
GRADE SEPARATION

Construction Activities

H Permanent railroad track under construction

J Stage 1 UPRR Bridge under construction

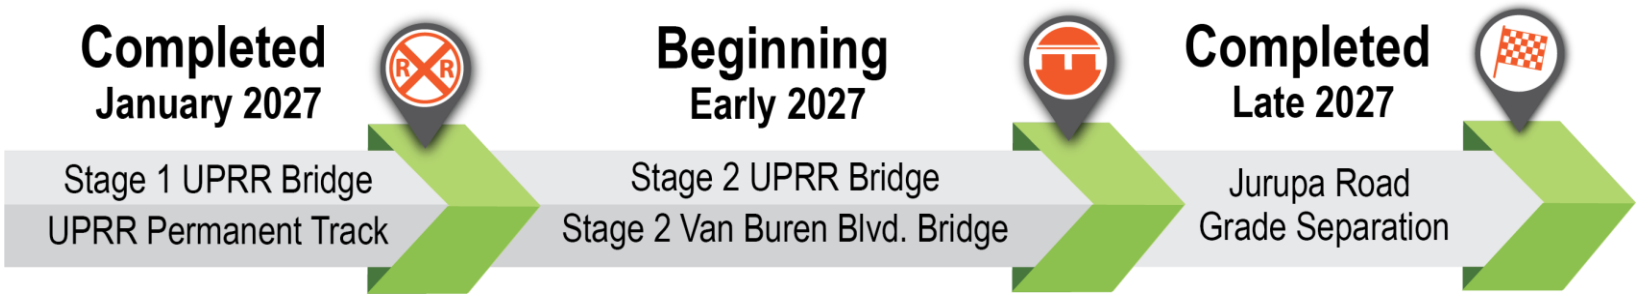

K Stage 2 UPRR and Van Buren bridges expected to start early 2027

I Construct Jurupa Road Undercrossing and open Jurupa & Felspar intersection – expected completion late 2027

JURUPA ROAD
GRADE SEPARATION

Path To Completion

1. Stage 1 UPRR Bridge – expected completion January 2027
2. Construct permanent railroad track – expected completion early 2027
3. Construct Stage 2 UPRR and Van Buren Blvd. bridges – expected to start early 2027
4. Construct Jurupa Road Undercrossing and open Jurupa Road & Felspar Street intersection – at project completion late 2027

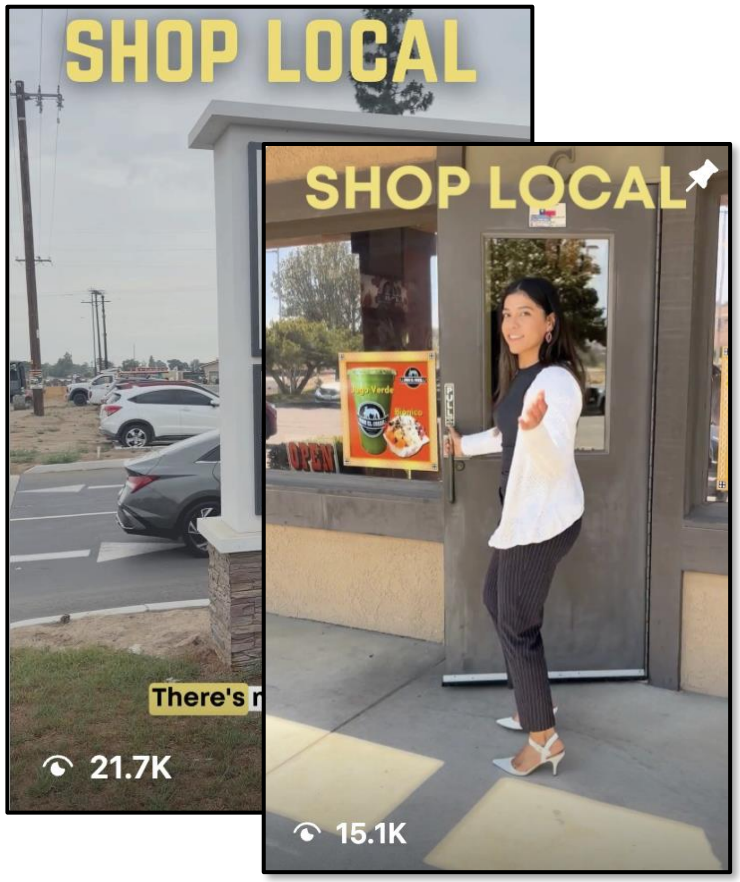

JURUPA ROAD
GRADE SEPARATION

Community Outreach Update

Social Media Summer Campaign
Result Highlights | July – September 2026

FACEBOOK	INSTAGRAM
23,078 Views	18,193 Views
11,498 Engagements	663 Profile visits
865 Page visits	89 New follows

@JurupaGradeSeparation

@JurupaGradeSeparation

JURUPA ROAD
GRADE SEPARATION

Community Outreach Update

Actively supporting the community and project stakeholders

- Coordination among the City, stakeholders, and the project team
- Providing construction updates
- Ongoing business outreach within the project area

JURUPA ROAD GRADE SEPARATION

www.JurupaGradeSeparation.com

Construction Hotline: 800-679-9570

@JurupaGradeSeparation

Project Partners

Riverside County Flood Control & Water Conservation District

City of Jurupa Valley

County of Riverside Transportation Department

Jurupa Community Services District

Union Pacific

RCTC Riverside County Transportation Commission

Rebuilding California SB1